

Java and WebSphere Developers

Our company is seeking Intermediate and Junior Java and WebSphere developers for positions located in the Washington, D.C. and Reston, VA.. Compensation will be based on qualifications and experience. A full benefits package, including 401K program, will be provided.

Requirements:

Intermediate Developers -- We are seeking software developer with demonstrated operational and maintenance experience supporting multi-tiered application architecture components and Service Oriented Architecture (SOA) components in the WebSphere Application Server (WAS) and WebSphere Process Server (WPS) environments. Two years demonstrated experience in developing and supporting WebSphere-based SOA applications using JAVA, WebSphere Integrated Developer, WebSphere Process Server, and WebSphere Application Server required. Experience. Experience maintaining web-based user interfaces using HTML, Javascript and Java servlets, and demonstrated experience providing application support in a maintenance environment desired as well

Junior Developers -- We are also seeking a developer with hands-on experience with JAVA, WebSphere Process Server, WebSphere Application Server.

Candidates will provide technical leadership and guidance to other technical team members and strong technical skills and communication skills are required. Self-starter, exemplary writing and oral skills, extensive experience in multiple consulting environments, ability to lead and work well in integrated project teams

Other Qualifications:

- Active Clearance with DoD or DHS a plus
- Bachelor's Degree in a recognized technical, engineering, scientific or other discipline related to area of expertise.
- Previous experience with major consulting firm a plus
- Must be a US Citizen

PG public services, LLC