

IT Strategy Consultant

Our company is seeking a IT Strategy Consultant with background in IT Planning and Enterprise Architecture for a position located in the Washington, D.C. area. Compensation will be based on qualifications and experience. A full benefits package, including 401K program, will be provided.

Requirements:

- Ability to coordinate & facilitate stakeholder & subject matter expert sessions/workshops.
- Support project and program activities and the capture of customer requirements through customer collaboration and requirements capture via facilitated workshops.
- Command and execution of the strategic planning process as it applies to the implementation of multiple IT initiatives.
- Ability to see across initiatives, looking for points of synergy and commonality in order to recommend potential for collaboration, common development, etc.
- Ability to analyze and gather requirements and turn them into high-level capabilities.
- Ability to grasp business concepts and turn them into models to simplify decision-making, such as process flows, diagrams, analytical models, requirements list, business context diagrams process, etc
- Develop models for defining current and target state business processes and functions as well as conducting gap analyses and transition activities.
- Experienced in helping customers with the research, planning, and communication aspects of business and IT transformations
- Experienced in supporting the Federal Agency CIO offices and their stakeholders to integrate Enterprise Architecture outputs into the Capital Planning Investment Procurement/contracting stages.
- Conduct reviews and analyses of artifacts, work products, and application implementation strategies to be able to recommend optimal solutions to help ensure mission alignment and EA compliance.
- Perform in the Federal client environment and provide business process change recommendations after a detailed assessment of the requirements and the current state
- Portfolio Management processes and experience

Qualifications:

- Previous experience working for a large management consulting company desired
- 7 years applied experience in specific area of technical or management consulting expertise.
- Bachelor's Degree in a recognized technical, engineering, scientific, business, or other discipline related to area of expertise is required
- Possess excellent writing, presentation development, spreadsheet creation and work product development skills
- Must be a US Citizen
- Location: Washington DC